Dues for the first month will be collected at the first class in the first month of training. I acknowledge and agree that my participation in Jingui Qi Gong training can be terminated at the discretion of Jingui for any reason, at any time. In the event that my membership is terminated by Jingui, Jingui will notify me in writing of said termination and will provide me a pro rata refund of the monthly membership dues for the month of the termination.

If I decide to withdraw from Jingui training for any reason whatsoever, I will submit to the instructor formal written notification of my withdrawal by the 7th of the month during which I am withdrawing. I understand that until the instructor receives written notification of my withdrawal, my monthly training fees are due and payable on the first of every month, and that unless written notification is received by the 7th, I will not be issued a refund for that month's fees.

In the event that I choose to not attend classes for one or more months and choose to discontinue payment of my monthly training fees during this same time, my Jingui Qi Gong training is considered suspended until such time as I choose to reactivate the training. While my training is suspended, I understand that I am not eligible to receive training instruction from any Jingui Teacher, Associate Teacher, or Assistant Teacher, nor am I eligible to ask questions of any Jingui staff member regarding my training.
